As the accepted practice of setting executive compensation by peer groups is challenged, this webcast will explore alternative models for setting executive compensation and attempt to outline an alternative paradigm to the current peer group-driven process for setting executive compensation.

In viewing, participants will:

- Understand the argument against the use of peer groups
- Hear proposed alternative methods for setting executive compensation

Featuring:

James D. C. Barrall
Partner and Global Co-Chair, Benefits and Compensation Practice
Latham & Watkins LLP
Read Bio

Charles M. Elson
Edgar S. Woolard, Jr. Chair in Corporate Governance
University of Delaware's Lerner College of Business & Economics
Director of the John L. Weinberg Center for Corporate Governance
Read Bio

Craig K. Ferrere
Edgar S. Woolard, Jr., Research Fellow
University of Delaware's John L. Weinberg Center for Corporate Governance
Read Bio

Marcel Bucsescu
(Moderator)
Manager, The Conference Board Governance Center
The Conference Board
Read Bio